1. The King of Babylon had a mighty feast for all the mighty princes
2. Esther was a babe, both her parents died, and cousin Mor-de-cai was
3. Esther asked the Jews all to fast and pray for three long days and
4. in the land, but when he asked his lovely queen to come in
5. her next kin; then they were forced to go to Babylon, it
6. three long nights; and then she risked her life to see the King.
7. she refused the King's command; and so he removed her
8. was a war they could not win; and Now Esther was the 9. asking him to make things right. The King sentenced Haman and ©Sept 2001 by Adrienne Foster Potter from her royal place and sent for all the maidens in the land; Esther was the favorite of the King, for she and Mordecai saved his life, but Haman wished to say that he must die and put Mordecai in Haman's place; How the Jews refairest one of all and she accepted her King's hand. Esther was a murderer all the Jews which would include the King's own wife. Joyed and thanked the Lord for His kind and loving grace. ff woman of the Lord, living in a Kingdom of the sword; When her master called for her

Esther served the Lord.

Lord.