Lord, I Believe

words and music by Adrienne Foster Potter

Voice

Piano

1. A
2. The 5

man came to Je - ru - sa - lem who loved the poor in heart. He healed the lame and Sav - ior healed the lit - tle child and all who saw re - joiced; an on - ly son was blind and dumb with Heav-en's heal - ing art. Ma - ny saw his mir - a - cles and now re - born and lov - ing thanks was voiced, for Him whose mind and bo - dy were so

Pno.

10

Pno.

©1997 by Adrienne Foster Potter

Lord, I Believe

15

knew He was the one. A - mong them was a fa-ther with a long - tor - ment-ed ma - ny times re - viled, then la - ter the dis - ci-ples asked why they healed not the Pno.

20

son. Those whom Je - sus chose could not help the strick - en lad. They child? Je - sus said it hap - pens thru fast - ing and thru prayer.' Our Pno.

25

knew their faith was weak and the know-ledge made them sad. The Sav - ior told the char - i - ty and faith are the gifts that we can share. So when our faith is Pno.

30

fa - ther what be - liev - ing could a - chieve. He said all things are poss - i - ble for weak and we are grop - ing for the light, re - mem-ber what the Sav-ior said and Pno.

35

them that will be - lieve. "Lord, I be - lieve! Help thou mine un - be - fol - low what is right.

35

Pno.

40

lief! Lord, heal my son and turn to joy my grief!"

40

Pno.

45

1, 2.

"Lord, I be - lieve, Help thou mine un - be - lief!"

45

Pno.

49

2.

"Lord, I be - lieve, Oh Lord, I be - lieve!

49

Pno.

8vb