Noah's Ark

Adrienne Foster Potter

Piano

1. The Lord re - vealed to No - ah that there would be a flood, and
2. And soon the ark was done and they load - ed their sup - plies, and
3. They worked and fed the zeb - ras and el - e - phants and bears, the rain would fill the whole wide world with wat - er and with mud. Then ga - thered up the an - i - mals and birds and but - ter flies. They cock - a - toos and kan - ga - roos and li - ons in their lairs. Then

3

Pno.

5

Pno.

He told No - ah he should build a great big wood - en boat from chose the fi - nest hors - es and the best of cows and sheep, and in the sev - enth month the ark dis - cov - ered land and sat, u -

7

Pno.

go - pher wood and ced - ar trees and o - ther things that float.
beasts as fast as light - en - ing and those that slow - ly creep.
pon the peaks and moun - tains in the range called A - ra - rat.

9

Pno.

No - ah and his sons be - gan to cut and saw and build; the Then the rain be - gan to fall from dark - ened storm - y skies, and God told No - ah it was time to go out - side and stand and

@April 2020 by Adrienne Foster Potter

Noah's Ark

11

Pno.

peo - ple all made fun of them but they re - fused to yield. They as the roar - ing thun - der clapped the seas be - gan to rise. The let out all the an - i - mals to roam a - cross the land. Then

13

Pno.

built three sto - ries in the ark, with win - dows and a door;
rain came down in tor - rents now for for - ty nights and days, as No - ah built and al - tar, to wor - ship God on high, and 15

Pno.

They were do - ing some - thing that had not been done be - fore.
they were shut up in the ark with - out the sun - shine's rays.
God set out a rain - bow that glowed a - cross the sky.

17

Pno.

Rains will come and winds will blow, Rain - bows come and rain - bows go;

19

Pno.

All of this helps us to know that storms and tri - als help us grow.

1. 2.